
Subcategories

Goodmorning.

At the moment i use only the default calendar, but on a regular base i make appointments with different persons but with the same employer.

So i wandered if its possible to create subcategorys and view them in the Managerview, or do i have to create several calendars?

For example

Appointments:

Employer

person 1

person 2

TIA

I'm not really sure what you are asking but the manager doesn't support any kind of grouping so the answer probably is no.
