3 hours difference

Dear Developers,

I tried Rainlendar today and found that there are 3 hours difference between google calendar and Rainlendar.

For example, I create an event "class from 3pm to 4pm" in google calendar, then the Rainlendar shows that this event is "12pm to 1pm".

I use the Beta 124.

Thank you!

Welcome to the forum, Shadowzyb.

There is a similar question:

Maybe you have the same problem.

Other possibility is that the events use different timezone in Google calendar than what the computer uses.
